WHO WE ARE

The Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) is a 7,500 + member strong organization of educated women who come together to build friendships, engage in thought-provoking discussions and provide scholarships and fellowships for girls and women pursuing post-secondary education.

WHAT WE DO

CFUW addresses local, national and international social justice issues; provides heightened awareness among members and advocates for appropriate social policy regarding women’s rights and equality.

We have a 100 year long history of achievements in ensuring education for women and realizing their human rights.

We host engaging, informative speakers, events and activities that enhance lifelong learning.

We are one of the few women’s organizations to offer a local, national and international opportunity that is independently funded and reasonably priced.

CFUW believes that when provided equal opportunities for education, and when surrounded by friendship and fellowship, our ability to achieve greatness is astounding.
